1. If you experience physical discomfort during a lab, you should keep going to get a good mark.
   A. True  B. False

2. It is safe to put your stethoscope away without cleaning it with alcohol first.
   A. True  B. False

3. It is safe to use someone else's stethoscope without cleaning it with alcohol first.
   A. True  B. False

4. Used sutures, needles, razor blades, or anything sharp, may be discarded in:
   A. The garbage can  B. The floor of the lab
   C. The bench top  D. The sharps container

5. It is safe to hold a suture or sharp instrument in your mouth if your hands are busy.
   A. True  B. False

6. It is safe to measure NIBP using the same arm more than once per hour.
   A. True  B. False

7. It is safe to mount or dismount the treadmill while it is moving.
   A. True  B. False

8. When connecting an air mill to the compressed air supply, the air mill must be:
   A. Held in your hand  B. Held between your knees
   C. Turned on  D. Turned off and in its cradle

9. It is safe to connect the air supply to an air mill which is sitting on the desk as long as you are sure the mill is turned off.
   A. True  B. False

10. When using air tools, the use of eye protection is optional.
    A. True  B. False

Circle the correct answers - You must score 100% on this assignment